

Timothy Ng Wai Keong Managing Director

Timothy Ng Wai Keong founded Timothy Ng LLC (formerly known as Timothy Ng & Co). He practises international arbitration/litigation, focusing principally on contractual, construction and civil engineering disputes. He regularly appears before the Singapore Courts, arbitral or adjudication tribunals on a broad range of construction and/or commercial related disputes including professional negligence.

His clients include international contractors, MNCs, foreign governments and professionals. Timothy is especially proud of being instructed by fellow solicitors.

DISPUTES

He is particularly experienced in disputes in relation to the following:

Complex Construction & Infrastructure Disputes — having led teams in various construction disputes involving highly technical issues relating to water treatment systems, railways, airports, integrated resorts, hotels, theme parks and conservation buildings;

Commercial Related Disputes — eg. commercial crimes, joint venture, M&A and shareholder disputes, banking and/or insolvency related disputes;

AGREEMENTS & ADVISORY WORKS

Projects and Infrastructure Work— reviewing Agreements and providing advice in relation to Construction and Infrastructure Projects both in Singapore and overseas.

Timothy Ng graduated from the University of Buckingham in 1994, was called to the Bar of England and Wales (Gray's Inn) the following year and the Singapore Bar in 1997. He has been in active practice since. In the course of practice, he pursued a two-year (part-time) Masters in Law at the National University of Singapore which he obtained in 2003.

Timothy Ng has presented papers at seminars and jointly conducted workshops for professional associations in the construction industry.

He has also lectured construction law as well as dispute resolution to postgraduate students on the Masters of Science (International Construction Management) programme at Nanyang Technological University. Timothy was an Adjunct Associate Professor at the National University of Singapore (2014-2018). He also heads the construction law course at Singapore University of Social Services (SUSS)
